

Cannon Park Virtual Values Week

How lovely to see that you are continuing to show our Cannon Park School Values at home! We are so proud of you. It has been great to see and hear what you have been doing both by yourself and with other people in your house. Some children have been teaching younger siblings the values, so they know all about them, ready for when they start at Cannon Park! It is particularly good to see how you are showing the values to help others. Well done everyone! Keep it up.
